

41 Regent Quay
Aberdeen
AB11 5BE
help@autismunderstanding.scot

autismunderstanding.scot

Autism Understanding Scotland is a professional autistic led service dedicated to helping people deepen their knowledge and understanding of autism.

Our Services for Employers and Employees

For more information contact our Employment Specialist, Zsafia Utry z.utory@autismunderstanding.scot

We offer services to employers of autistic people and for autistic people at work. Some of our services may be funded by the Scottish Government through Inspiring Scotland.

Bespoke Training

For organisations and business, including managers and staff. Learn and exchange ideas with our experts to improve inclusion of autistic people in the workplace.

Monthly Employer Webinars

For organisations and businesses, including managers and staff. Learn and interact with others with a shared interest in autism and disability inclusion.

Consultation

For organisations and businesses, including managers and staff. Private and confidential opportunity to ask for personalised advice on autism and inclusion a work.

One-to-one

For autistic employees or jobseekers.

Private and confidential coaching or consultation with our trained Employment Specialist.

Autistic Career and Professional Development Lunch Club

For autistic employees or jobseekers.

Bi-weekly regular online group event to discuss work related challenges and opportunities in a safe space.

Information Hub

For All.

Our section on Employment on our website provides useful general information on autism at work for all who are interested.